

"If You Don't Want it Printed, Don't Let it Happen."

Aspen Daily News

aspendailynews.com

The Roaring Fork Valley's only independent and locally owned daily newspaper

970-925-2220

Printed on Recycled Paper

MONDAY, APRIL 20, 2015

Vol. 37 #295

BUSINESS NEWS IN BRIEF

Rowland+Broughton Architecture tapped for new Limelight Hotel in Ketchum, Idaho

Rowland+Broughton Architecture/Urban Design/Interior Design has been selected to develop the interiors of the Aspen Skiing Co.'s new Limelight Hotel in downtown Ketchum, Idaho.

Modeled after the SkiCo's Limelight in Aspen, for which Rowland+Broughton recently completed a full interior design program, plans for the new hotel include 108 hotel rooms and suites, open-plan public spaces and 14 free-market residential units. The hotel is scheduled to be built near Sun Valley's River Run base at Bald Mountain.

"We are extremely pleased to have been chosen to participate in moving this exciting hotel project forward," said Sarah Broughton, Rowland+Broughton principal. "Partnering with Aspen Skiing Co. to expand the Limelight brand into Ketchum is a positive move for all involved. With a focus on both environmental initiatives and inspired design, the hotel will offer an opportunity for visitors to experience the true heart and soul of the local communities."

"We are excited to be working with Rowland+Broughton on another project," said Don Schuster, SkiCo's vice president of hospitality. "They have developed a respected reputation by successfully creating thoughtful and inspiring designs while building innovative hotel and hospitality brands."

The project start is planned for this summer, with completion slated for the 2016 ski season.

For more information, visit www.rowlandbroughton.com.

Woody Creek Distillers earns top honors at San Francisco World Spirits Competition

Woody Creek Distillers (WCD) earned top honors recently at the 15th annual San Francisco World Spirits Competition, receiving the double gold medal for their Woody Creek Colorado 100% Potato Vodka, including recognition for best vodka.

"We are truly honored to have been awarded double gold for our Woody Creek Colorado 100% Potato Vodka from the nation's most respected spirits competition," said Woody Creek Distillers operating partner Mark Kleckner. "We work hard to guarantee our potato vodkas and specialty spirits are the finest, and this award is a true testament to our team's hard work and dedication."

The winning spirit is a smooth and robust potato-based