ROWLAND+BROUGHTON ARCHITECTURE/URBAN DESIGN/INTERIOR DESIGN RECOGNIZED WITH A 2017 NEWH TopID AWARD, HONORED AT ANNUAL HAUTE SEAT EVENT

ASPEN, CO — May 9, 2017 — Rowland+Broughton Architecture/Urban Design/Interior Design was recognized with a Rocky Mountain Chapter TopID award by the Network of Executive Women in Hospitality/The Hospitality Industry Network (NEWH). The recognition was honored at the NEWH Rocky Mountain Chapter's annual Haute Seat Spotlight Edition event, which took place on April 20 at the Daltille Showroom in Denver.

"It is an honor to be recognized by the Rocky Mountain Chapter for our firm's hospitality design work," notes Rowland+Broughton Interior Designer Chelsea Lawrence, NCIDQ. "Being named a NEWH TopID firm is a testament to the efforts of our talented, hard-working team and to our fearless leaders, Sarah Broughton and John Rowland, who are dedicated to encouraging and supporting the efforts of NEWH."

Each of the 22 NEWH Chapter boards was invited to participate in this significant program, intended to recognize and promote the best in the hospitality industry. The prestigious honor is determined through a nomination and anonymous voting process by the boards, with strict guidelines set forth by the NEWH Executive Committee.

Criteria for nominations include consideration of a firm's quality design work in the hospitality industry, membership and support the firm has provided their NEWH chapter, and projects with photography completed within the last 18 months. Not only are firms acknowledged by their local community as a leader in hospitality design, they are also celebrated internationally across the vast network of professionals in the industry.

"Being recognized among such an esteemed collection of firms reinforces our commitment to excellence in the hospitality industry," adds R+B Principal Sarah Broughton, AIA. "Mentoring and connecting with industry leaders is a vital, ongoing part of R+B's cultural DNA, and we look forward to continuing to support NEWH's efforts on the local level and beyond."

The TopID award was accepted by Broughton and Lawrence, along with R+B's Senior Interior Designer Jayna Kline, ASID, IIDA. Lawrence is currently serving as NEWH President.
