2019 AIA COLORADO DESIGN AWARD WINNERS

This year's winning residential projects were designed by architecture firms across Colorado and were recognized for innovative uses of materials, space and design, and for reimagining what "home" can mean.

MEADOW HOUSE

Aspen, Colorado
CCY ARCHITECTS

Nestled in a meadow perched above the confluence of two rivers and the Continental Divide, Meadow House seeks to minimize its visual impact on the natural landscape by becoming an extension of the pristine site.

PHOTO BY DRAPER WHITE PHOTOGRAPHY AND LENA NICHOLSON

MUSIC BOX

Aspen, Colorado
CCY ARCHITECTS

This home creatively incorporated the music-loving owners' favorite piece — Chopin's "Nocturne in E-Flat Major, Op.9, No.2. — into the design of the home's exterior. Both functional and beautiful, the sheet music screen helps to shade the house.

For over 125 years, AIA Colorado has empowered architects to design a better world where we all can live, work and play. To see all of the 2019 AIA Colorado Design & Honor Award winners, visit aiacolorado.org.

MODERN STAIR

Denver, Colorado
HMH ARCHITECTURE
+ INTERIORS

Drawing inspiration from origami trees, this home was recognized for its striking staircase, which acts as a focal point against the minimalist design of the home. The stairs serve to connect the residence's four stories and as a conversation-starter for guests.

RIDGE HOUSE

Aspen, Colorado
ROWLAND+BROUGHTON

Set along a ridgeline with significant mountain views, Ridge House is a design that thoughtfully blends old and new, indoor and outdoor, and public and private spaces. The home accommodates a young family and their goals of honoring the original architecture and using updated materials which will age well.

BLUR

Boulder, Colorado
STUDIO B ARCHITECTURE
+ INTERIORS

By day, this custom residence is a silhouette, a dark floating bar, with a glossy metallic exterior. By night, Blur is a series of warm golden bands projected onto the hillside. Durable and fire-resistant, it's built to withstand its harsh mountain environment and to contrast its surroundings.

Let's Get Fabulous!

CH&L's masters of architecture, building, design and landscape

2019 Home of the Year
Rowland+Broughton
designed this Aspen masterpiece.

ON BEHALF OF the entire crew at CH&L, it's my complete pleasure to let those of you in the design community know that we are grateful all year long for our connections with so many of you. Thank you for your encouragement and support and for sharing your work with us! We appreciate all that you do to create beautiful environments in Colorado, and we are honored to be able to feature your work on these pages. We choose our annual holiday issue to tip our hats (and raise a proverbial toast) to those whose stellar work has been featured in CH&L over the past two years and to give ongoing kudos to our Circle of Excellence winners, who continue to mentor and raise the bar on design in Colorado. You're all fabulous, so we're making it official!

Bravo!
Kate & the CH&L team
