DENVER'S HOME SHOPPING YEARBOOK

Aspen designer Sarah Broughton picks Denver's best home shopping locales

SARAH SHOPS:
Designer Sarah Broughton looks for unique pieces from Denver to Aspen

Sarah Broughton, who co-owns Rowland + Broughton Architecture and Urban Design with her husband, John, splits her time between Aspen and Denver. Here, she names ten superlative destinations for home shopping in Denver—proof there's more to the 200-mile trek than leaf-peeping over Independence Pass.

MOST POPULAR

Studio Como is one of our favorites. They have a great collection of furniture and lighting. They have the best classic Italian modern look. You can go there and you're always guaranteed to find something.

MOST WELL-ROUNDED

We love shopping at Room & Board. We particularly love their beds, rugs, and ottomans. Their showroom in Cherry Creek makes it easy to "test drive" the furniture and make quick decisions. We also love

Design Within Reach in Cherry Creek for their modern, comfortable couches and iconic furniture lines.

MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED

We work a lot with Liesl Lighting for lighting design. What's great about going there is that they're newer, progressive, and they've got great stuff. Definitely an up-and-comer.

MOST FRIENDLY

Euro Bath + Tile in the Design Center—but it's not actually in the building, so anyone can go. Their service is great; they will put together an entire plumbing spec with you.

MOST INTIMIDATING

Arizona Tile, on the way to the airport, is a huge warehouse where you can pick out slabs and tile. They have the full gamut of all the natural stone.

MOST CREATIVE

For amazing custom furniture, we work with Scott Friedman and his company, Gitane Workshop.

MOST BEAUTIFUL

Town has really great lines. It's one of those showrooms you go in and like everything—and that's rare. My favorite lines are Antoine Proulx for modern pieces, Edward Ferrell + Lewis Mittman for upholstery, and Ralph Lauren for plaid fabrics on modern furniture pieces. We love Rogers & Goffigon Fabrics, Jiun Ho furniture for his casegoods, Tuell + Reynolds for side tables, and Phillip Jeffries wall coverings.

CLASS CLOWN

We are loving blu cabinetry's locally sourced beetle kill pine furniture! So cool!

MOST SHY

Off the beaten path, we like Mid-Mod & More, which just moved to Lower Highlands, aka LoHi. For accessories and unique items: 5 Green Boxes in the Washington Park area. And for vintage furniture: Decade on South Broadway.

RUMOR HAS IT

I have not been, but all the people in my office like Element. ☺
